

AUTO & HOUSE GLASS
Your 1 Stop Glass Shop

In-House Windshield Calibration & Claim Processing.
We are your Autoglass Specialists!

133 15th St., East, Prince Albert, SK • Open Monday-Friday 8am-5pm • bensautoglass.ca

PRINCE ALBERT

Rural ROOTS
a publication of

DAILY HERALD

Your local news source since 1894

Employee owned and operated. Community focused.

FARMING

PAEX brings the beef

OVER $200.00 OFF!
'PLUM' DELUXE TRAMPOLINE
Reg $599⁹⁹ ONLY $388⁰⁰

184-0769
WITH THIS COUPON
VALID TO AUG 30/22

7 71960 00030 9
$1.90 plus GST

Ranchers from across Saskatchewan started August off by bringing their best to the Prince Albert Exhibition. The PAEX crowned number of winners for the first time since 2019, including this bull from Oak Hill Farms near Melville, which took home top spot in the Supreme Beef Competition. For more on this story, please see page 2. -- Photo by Marjorie Roden.

<h3>LOCAL NEWS</h3>Spiritwood Co-op wins inclusive employer awardLake Country Co-op's Spiritwood team leaders have been awarded the 2022 SK Inclusive Employer award in recognition of their commitment to inclusive employment. See Page 3 for more.	<h3>SPORTS</h3>Stanley Cup heads to HumboldtThe Stanley Cup continued its journey around Saskatchewan with a stop at the Humboldt Broncos Memorial Golf Tournament on Aug. 6. See Page 11 for more.	<h3>OPINION</h3>In the imageToday's opinion column by Ed OlfertEveryone needs a reminder to be humble, Ed Olfert writes, and sometimes those reminders come from unexpected places. See Page 4 for more.	<h3>HISTORY</h3>Picture perfectBusiness was boom or bust for Prince Albert's first photographer, Fred Payton writes, but the legacy William James left behind was worth the effort. See Page 6 for more.	<h3>AT HOME</h3>Gardens on public propertyBoulevard gardens can be a risky investment, since you have no control over how long they last, Mark and Ben Cullen write, but there's no doubt they liven up a neighbourhood. See Page 5 for more.
--	---	---	--	---